Please note that if you've opted not to receive legal notice emails from us (or you haven't provided us with your email address), those legal notices will still govern your use of the Services, and you are still responsible for reading and understanding them. If you use the Services after any changes to the Privacy Policy have been posted, that means you agree to all of the changes.

How We Collect Information

My-Nyoobe and our third party service providers may collect both Personal Information and additional information from an assortment of sources:

(a) Information from your use of the Service: We may receive information about how and when you visited our website or use the Services, store it in log files or other types of files associated with your account, and link it to other information we collect about you. This information may include, for example, your IP address, time, date, browser used, and actions you have taken within the application. This type of information helps us to improve our Services for both you and for all of our users.

(b) Web Beacons: We may use web beacons on our Websites and in our emails. When we send emails to Customers, we may track behavior such as who opened the emails and who clicked the links. Web beacons allow us to collect information about when you open the email, your IP address, your browser or email client type, and other similar details. We may also include Web Beacons in the emails we deliver for you. Reports are also available to us when we send email to you, so we may collect and review that information.

We may also collect and share the physical location of your device for purposes consistent with this Policy, such as to provide you with personalized location-based services or content. In some instances, you may be permitted to allow or deny such use of your device's location, but if you choose to deny such use, we may not be able to provide you with the applicable personalized services or content. We may also use your location information to improve the Services.

Consistent with the uses of Personal Information covered under the heading, "Third Parties," we may transfer Personal Information of you to companies that help us promote, provide, or support our Services or the services of our Customers ("Service Providers"). We do not rent or sell your Personal Information in personally identifiable form to anyone, provided certain Personal Information may be transferred in connection with business transfers, as described below. All Service Providers will be required to enter into a contract with us that protects Personal Information and restricts their use of any Personal Information consistent with this policy. As part of our Services, we may use and incorporate into features information you have provided or we have collected from you. We may share this information with third parties in line with the approved uses above.

Please remember that any content you upload to your public user profile, along with any Personal Information or content that you voluntarily disclose online in a manner other users can view (on discussion boards, in messages and chat areas, etc.) becomes publicly available, and can be collected and used by anyone. Your user name may also be displayed to other users if and when you send messages or comments or upload images or videos through the Services and other users can contact you through messages and comments. Additionally, if you sign into the Services through a third party social networking site or service, your list of “friends” from that site or service may be automatically imported to the Services.
